KARACHI: Pakistan Tehreek-i-Insaf president Imran Khan said that he was glad to announce of the initiation of the probe against those who violated the country's constitution and the court orders. According to Khan, the so-called probe should also be launched against judiciary and other government authorities. He added that the government of Pakistan would be held accountable if any rigging takes place during the upcoming elections. The PTI chief said that once the government ends its rigging and decides to hold the elections on time, then it would immediately come out with its findings about all those who violated the law. He further claimed that the people of Pakistan, who are living under the oppression, would get justice by the end of his tenure. Khan called upon the government to stop using the forced Taseer-led amendments to the Anti-Terrorism Act 2009, the Unlawful Activities Prevention Act, and the Prevention of Electronic Crimes Act and to re-interpret the same accordingly, so that no section is interpreted as a threat to democracy. Khan said that since the inception of the country, the people of Pakistan had been denied the right to free and fair elections, which was guaranteed in the Constitution. He said that this right had been taken away from them because some powerful forces desired this as their hold to remain in power. This is one reason why both Aitzaz and Imran have been left behind in a land of x-ray for quite a while, he said, also alluding to his alleged healing powers and other such farcical claims. Khan says in announcement: "I am also glad to announce the launch of the probe against those who violated the country's constitution and the court orders, but we should also initiate a probe against the judiciary and other government authorities who have always violated the law and the court's decisions." --JIHAD JIHAD JIHAD-- The following are excerpts of speeches and articles by Imran in 2018: May 11, 2018 Here are the excerpts of Imran's speech at Jinnah Garden, Karachi: It was the demands of the masses of the nation that brought me to Pakistan. We are at war with those who believe in non-violence as a policy. The history of our nation has been subject to bloodshed. I am not the only one who has asked for the birth of Pakistan, but even in 1941, the Pakistan Movement was

What to do when new song begins Tasleem (Arabic meaning: purity) is a term used in Arabic and some Muslim traditions which means "clean". This refers to the physical and spiritual cleanliness of a person, as well as their newness, innocence and purity in the spiritual realm. In Arabic, the word is derived from ta` meaning (ع) `a` from and , "without be to" or "naked be to" meaning (تش-ش) sh-ash-t of participle a (طاش), "noise" or "speech", which gives the meaning "speechless". For example, Allah says about the prophets, "Say: "Truly! Allah! Be ye my witnesses as to what I say!" (Surah Al-Anam, 6:83) or "Verily! Allah is the All Hearing, the All Knowing." (Surah Al-Kahf, 18:26) or "And in Allah is a High Resolution to which He explains the Qur'ân clearly. The most Noble Qur'ân is indeed a guide to the heaven and the earth, so do not say, "Three guides have passed away!" (Surah Al-Anaam, 6:75) or "The Apostle will repeat to you what you repeat in your low voices" (Surah Al-Ma'arij, 71:30), or, "O people, (come) to prayer, establish regular prayers for the prayer is better than the prayer and the fasting that you neglect." (Surah Al-Ghashiyah, 64:15) or "And the best of you are those who have the most taqwa." (Surah At-Talaq, 65:2) The expression has been used in literature as well. In Sura Al-Kahf, Allah says, "And the Noble (Qur'ân) has protected you (Prophet Muhammad). Did you see that Allah took a human form and He taught by His revelations, and He made you heirs of the Book and the wisdom, and He made you the inheritors (of Abrahamic lineage)?" (Surah Al-Kahf, 7:107) or "These are the similitude of those who have earned through the goodness of their Lord: whosoever earns goodness with Allaah, he will be with those mentioned in their good news. And
